

Ebola patients placed in the Putins capsule - protective transport bag for infected patient

EBOLA PATIENTS PLACED IN THE PUTINS CAPSULE - PROTECTIVE TRANSPORT BAG FOR INFECTED PATIENT

Russian President Vladimir Putin ordered to send in Guinea the Russian hospital, designed to combat a particularly dangerous infections, and set of protective transport bags for infected patient

This was told by the press secretary of the Russian leader, Dmitry Peskov, noting that it is the way the president responded to a request from Guinea.

Russia renders support to Guinea as part of the international fight against Ebola. Putin also instructed to prepare a Russian aircraft, on its board there are the capsules for the transport of sick and infected and Isolation box for infected patient, says "Interfax".

Ebola and other infectious outbreaks are a threat to the world economy. Such a statement was made by G20 leaders at the summit in Brisbane. They called on all countries to join the mobilization of resources to counter this threat.

WestMedGroup Company for several years engaged in supplying of biological and chemical protection - Isolation box for infected patient Biobox for infectious diseases and protective transport bag for infected patient Biobag.